Fresher's Day Celebrated at ICFAI University

23rd Aug 2017

Today, "Fresher's Day" was celebrated at ICFAI University, Jharkhand, wherein all the newly admitted students in 2017 were welcomed by the senior students, followed by a colourful and enjoyable cultural program and interesting events.

Addressing the students on the occasion, Prof ORS Rao, Vice-Chancellor of the University said, "Strength of our University is the diversity of our students, not only in terms of the geographical locations from where they come but also their talents and interests. This will make your Campus Life interesting and enjoyable". Referring to the Aspiration Survey conducted by the University recently, he said, "8% of our newly admitted students in 2017 want to start their own business immediately after their graduation, which goes up to 20% of the students after 10 years. It is interesting to note that some of our students want to join services like defense, police and some aspire to become successful politicians after 10 years. We plan to facilitate all of them to reach their aspirations."

A variety of cultural programs, like singing, dancing, quiz, musical chairs were held to ensure that old and new students could mix very well. Chota Nagpuri Tribal dance was a start attraction. Contests were held for Mr Fresher and Ms Fresher, wherein points scored by the individual students in all events were added to declare the winners and runners. Mr Piyush Kumar and Ms Khyati Kumari were adjudged Mr Fresher and Ms Fresher respectively.
