ICFAI UNIVERSITY JHARKHAND WELCOMES FRESHERS TO THE NEW ACADEMIC SESSION

Ranchi, September 16, 2011.

Today, the ICFAI University, Jharkhand (IUJ) welcomed the bright talents who have chosen to join various academic programs at the University during this Academic Year. Speaking on the occasion, Brig. S. K Deb, Registrar stressed the importance of skill development, team building, collective learning, learning from peer group that help the students to become good citizens and well groomed professionals. “The IUJ programs incorporate this aspect in its programmes, wherein the students are required to take different Projects, Assignments, group activities etc”, added Brig. Deb.

Fresher’s party is celebrated at IUJ every year to get the newcomers acquainted with the new environment and ethos of the University. It gave all newcomers a chance to interact with the fellow students and staff on an informal platform. On this occasion students displayed their skills in cultural activities such as Walking the Ramp, Dance (Solo, Group), Solo Song, Short Skits etc. Audience was kept spellbound by their scintillating performances.

Announcing the name of the winner of Mr. Fresher & Ms. Fresher, Brig. Deb thanked the participants who had taken part in the competition and also conveyed his best wishes to the freshers. He also congratulated the members of the organizing committee for organizing a wonderful program.

Dr. Gautam Guha Sarkar, Dean (FST), welcomed the participants. Dr. B. M. Singh, Dean (FMS), and other University officials, Faculty members, students and other invitees, participated in the function.
