About the Seminar

ICFAI University Jharkhand, Ranchi is happy to present a Seminar on “Corporate Social Responsibility in the Emerging Scenario: Issues and Challenges” on 19 September 2013 starting at 9.30 a.m. at its Faculty of Management Studies Campus The business climate is improving over the long term, foreign investors are increasingly establishing businesses across India, and Indian companies are beginning to increase their participation in the international markets. It is thus necessary for Indian companies to compete on all parameters in the global marketplace. Corporate Social Responsibility, i.e. the individual business incorporating social and environmental considerations into its strategy, which features prominently on the development agenda including Human Rights, Labor Standards, Environment, Anti-Corruption, Education, Occupational Health and Safety (OHS), and Work-life Balance concerns, has in recent years become a key parameter for any company competing in the national or international markets. Companies can no longer ignore CSR. They can only accept them as opportunities to embrace and challenges to surmount in India CSR as a business strategy has begun to gain momentum and companies are gradually realizing that CSR is more than a charitable function. It is a strategic investment that has crucial implications for the bottom-line. Climate change is also a concern that has recently increased dramatically all over the world, and companies worldwide, including in India, are forced to consider its implication in a business context and how they can strategically manage it as part of their CSR agenda.

With this background, ICFAI University Jharkhand has put a comprehensive Seminar on CSR and its issues and challenges and how it impacts on the bottom-line of individual companies and invites you to participate in this Seminar and jointly find out ways to support the private and public sector in its already important role as the engine of growth, development and poverty reduction in India.
