Seminar on “Career Opportunities in Banking Sector in the Next Five Years”

16 June 2015, Tuesday

• In order to build awareness of the Prime Minister’s ‘Financial Inclusivity’ initiative among the youth the ICFAI University Jharkhand organized a seminar on “Career Opportunities in Banking Sector in the Next Five Years” today.

• Welcoming the participants, Prof. O.R.S. Rao, Vice-Chancellor of the University said that honorable Prime Minister’s ‘Financial Inclusivity’ (Jan-Dhan Yojna) and ‘Digital India’ initiatives are expected to boost the growth of Banking Sector in India in the next five years which will create 10 lakhs job opportunities. He added that the University has taken an initiative in this respect by launching a new course in B.Com Banking, which will help the students to be professionally ready to seek the opportunity. IUJ has also included the papers of Banking in its regular MBA & BBA courses.

• Speaking on the occasion the Chief Guest, Mr. M.K. Gupta, Dy. General Manager of Bank of India, said that in future more opportunities will be available in the branches of banks in urban areas for which the banks are already prepared. So the students must also get prepared to grab the opportunity.

• Mr. Himanshu Shekhar, Assistant Vice-President, Axis Bank, emphasized on the need to develop the skills for maintaining better customer relations in Banks. Apart from these, many Senior Managers from reputed PSU and Private Banks addressed the seminar.

• Dr. K. K. Nag, Member, Bog, Dr. B. Prasad, Member, BoM, Dr Hari Haran, Academic Advisor IUJ were present on the occasion. Dr. B.M. Singh, Registrar, proposed vote of thanks.