ICFAI University to use LMS and Movies to teach students so that they can learn with fun
ICFAI UNIVERSITY TO IMPLEMENT LMS

The ICFAI University is planning to implement a Learning Management System (LMS). The motive is to create a learning environment with technology blended pedagogy, which includes use of movies and social networking tools so that classes are more interesting and students can learn with fun. Teachers' Day was also celebrated at the varsity where students presented cultural programmes.