Press Release

National Unity Day celebrated at ICFAI University

Today, National Unity Day celebrated at ICFAI University, on the eve of 142nd Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel, great freedom fighter and the Iron Man of India, who was instrumental in integration of 562 princely states into Independent India. A quiz program was conducted on his life and achievements and prizes were awarded to the winning students.

The program also included celebration of Vigilance Week as per the advice of Central Vigilance Commission and administering “pledge” on prevention of corruption by senior officials of bank of India to all the participants.

Welcoming the audience to the function, Prof ORS Rao, Vice-Chancellor of ICFAI University said, “Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel had the conviction that Character is very essential for real success and one who has no character cannot succeed either in politics or in business. At the same time, it is important to build awareness and be vigilant to prevent corruption, which has been spreading like wild fire after independence. Prevention and eradication of corruption can be the lasting tributes to Sardar Patel and his vision of Strong India”.

Addressing the audience, Dr S Chaturvedi, Deputy Director, Higher and Technical Education, Govt of Jharkhand complimented the University on conducting the program and paid glowing tributes to Sardar Patel. Dr CS Sahay, General Manager, Bank of India, Ranchi Zonal Office explained the causes for disintegration of India during the British Rule and the efforts of Sardar Patel in integration of India. Mr Srinivas Rao, Asst General Manager of Bank of India explained the role of technology in making the banking operations more transparent, thereby preventing corruption. Dr S Kishore , Professor of the University also gave his views.

Dr BM Singh, Registrar proposed a vote of thanks. Students, faculty members and other guests participated in the function.
