Parents-Teachers Meet held at ICFAI University

Today, Parents-Teachers Meet was held at ICFAI University, Jharkhand. Addressing the parents, Prof ORS Rao, Vice-Chancellor of the University said, “ The purpose of the meeting is to establish a direct connect with all of you and share with you the activities of the University and challenges faced , as you are the major stakeholders in the progress of your children. In order to facilitate all parents to participate , this event is being webcast live , so that parents from far away locations also can participate ”. Prof Rao explained the progress made by the University and also the steps taken and planned to be taken by the University to address the issues and requested the co-operation of the parents.

On the occasion, Parents Information System (PARIS) portal was launched ,which can be accessed by the parents even on their mobiles , to see the performance of the students in the examination , besides other details like fees paid, academic calendar and weekly time table , University notices etc.

During the function, top rankers of all programs were awarded medals and certificates.

The parents appreciated the initiative of the University to launch the online portal to keep them connected with the University on a continuous basis. Mr MP Sinha, father of two children , both of whom are studying at the University said, “ I have been attending all Parent-Teacher meetings held by the University since 2013 . I am happy to see good improvements that have been taking place with regard to infrastructure, quality of teaching and campus placements. That is the reason why I admitted my second son also in the same University”.

Dr BM Singh proposed a vote of thanks. Faculty members , staff and students participated in the function.
