Students of ICFAI University allocated Summer Internships in Industry

All students of ICFAI University, Jharkhand were allocated Summer Internships for a period of two months, starting today. The University arranged internships in reputed companies like Reliance Jio, Vodafone, Tata Motors, Pantaloons, Ruchi Soya, Vivo, Kotak Mahindra Bank, Indian Oil, Cyber Peace foundation, HPCL, Safex, SAIL, Pidillite, Reliance Retail etc. B.Tech and Diploma (Polytechnic) students of Mining Engineering got internships in Central Coalfields and Tata Steel Mining Division. All the students do internship under the guidance of University guide and company guide. At the end of the internship, all students are evaluated on their learning.

Over 50% of Undergraduate students (BBA, BCA, B.Com) and 85% of MBA students are being paid monthly stipend from the Companies.

Expressing happiness on allocation of the Summer Internships to all the students, Prof. O.R.S. Rao said, "Internship is compulsory for all of our students. Our University gives utmost importance to Internships, as they provide opportunity to our students to get hands-on skills, which makes them employable". "We strive to get stipend for most of the students so that the company as well as the students take internship more seriously. Despite a more difficult job scenario, this year, more students were able to get stipends", added Prof. Rao.
